FARM LANDS for SALE.—The ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY is now propared to sell about TWO MILLIONS OF ACRES of

CENTRAL BAILROAD COMPANY is now prepared to sell about TWO MILLIONS OF ACRES of FAR M IN G LANDS,

IN TRACTS OF FORTY ACRES AND UPWARD,
On Long Credits, and at Low Rates of Interest.
These Lands were granted by the Government to aid in the jonstruction of this Railroal, and are among the richest and most fertile in the State. They extend with the Road, from Chicago on the north-east to Cairo at the south, and thence to Galena and Dunleith in the extreme north-western part of the State. Most of these Lands lie immediately on, and within six miles of, the Road, and note are more than fifteen miles distant from it; hence, ready and cheap facilities are furnished for transporting their products to any of the Eastern or Southern sarkets. The great increase of population by immigration, &c., and the consequent rapid growth of flourishing towns and villeges on the line of the Road- and throughout the State, fornishes a substantial and growing home demand for every kind of farm and sarden produce.

In the northern and central parts of the State, prairie lands predominate, interspersed with magnificent groves of oak and other timber; in the southern, the timber is more abundant, and exceedingly valuable.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, its aently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc. The sir is pure and bracing, the climate more healthy, mild and equable than that of any other part of the Union; while diving atreams and springs of excellent water abound.

Economy it, cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, pleated on the newly-broken and, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencient.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very interprofite. A man with a plow and two year of oxen econd year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc., will be forwarded at reasonable rates
o Chicago, for the Eastern, and to Cairo for the Southern market.

Bituminous Coal is extensively mined along the Road, and supplies a cheap and desirable fuel, being furnished at many points at $3.50 to $5 per tun. Wood can be had at the same rate per cord. Extensive quarries have been opcued in the southern part of the State, near the line of this Road, of Building Stone of excellent quality—such as white and blue Limestone, and white and red Sandstone—which can be had for little none than the expense of transactively.

ing Stone of excellent quality—such as which and bine limestone, and white and red Sandstone—which can be has for litthe more than the expense of transportation.

The Government lands, in the Land Stanes, having generally sheen withdrawn from market, emigrants from the Eastern States and Europe can be accommodated by this Company with cancile Farms, at the old prices and terms, which, in all probabitty, will double in varue within twelve months.

When those lands are restored to market, persons who think of setting on them, or in Minnesota, should bear in mind that the Lands of this Company, at the prices for which they are sold, are better investments than those in other States of Tercritories more remote from barket, at Government prices; for the reason that the expense of transporting the products of the inter to market will always be a heavy drawback on them, and after a few years' cultivation they require manuring, which is not the case with Illinois lands.

The same remarks held good in relation to the lands in the Territories of Kausas and Nebraska; for although vacant lands are carried either in wagons, or interrupted water communidations increases the expenses of transporting the water communidations increases the expenses of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers in the reduced price of their products, and to tant extent precisely are the impones from the farms, and of some on their investments annually now offered for sale by his Company, and tasir consequent yield over those of the Eastern and Minde States, is mach more than sufficient to pay the differsace in the cost of transportation, especially in view of this facilities turnshed by this Road and others with which it conocets, the operations of which are not interrupted by the lowwater of Summer or the fronts of Winter.

PRICE AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

NEW-YORK HERALD and MACKENŽIE'S MANTILLAS—Mr. Bennett, in an article on Monday last upon the new styles of Cloaks and Mantillas, gives the following very flattering opinion as to the ments of the several styles to be found among the extensive assortment of Goods in MACKENŽIE'S exhibitalment, Nos 45 and 47 Canalest. We quote his language.

The "ZULEIKA"—a new and most recherche Mantilla of the shawl pattern, whose go recons Oriental magnificence is in keeping with its hame—is formed of the richest black velvet, and trimmed with deep nujpure fringe, so arranged as to give the appearance of a double shawl. Above each fall of lace fringe rubs an exquisite embroiders of the palm leaf pattern, interaptrised with budges that glance and glitter in the light. The "Zuleika" like the harem beauty whose name it bears, possesses the majesty of loveliness in a presentent degree.

The "LAURENTINE," vielogs with the "Zuleika" in beauty, is composed of the same material, but inclines to the mantilla form. The back is slightly pointed, and the trimming is the crocket fringe.

The "CRUYELLL," named in honor of the far-famed prima domns, is a small-sized Mantilla, suitable for mild Winter days, elaborately ornamented, but within the bounds of correct taxto. The material is black velvet, and the trimming is guipure lace, crochet fringe, and banging buttons.

The "CARINA" and "LA REME D'ECOSSE" Cloake are both composed of black heaver cloth, but differing in the style of trimming. They are much admirch.

The "IMPRIAL HEAUTY." a Cloth Cloak, is trimmed with Lyons velvet, and resembles the Spanish Circle it form. It is furnished with a hood, from the lower edge of which depends a row of dangling buttons, that way to and fro with the slightest motion.

The "MARY STUART" is not only a graceful but a comfortable garment, formed of gray cloth, and trimmed with black
